SABio - School in Advanced Biomaterials

Satellite event of MATERIAIS 2017

Under the auspices of UT Austin | Portugal International Collaboratory for Emerging Technology, CoLab

Aveiro, Portugal, 9th April 2017

Aims and Objectives - SABio is a School designed to provide an intensive teaching and knowledge exchange on cutting-edge topics in the fields of smart biomaterials, drug delivery, nanomedicine, biofabrication, tissue engineering and personalized medicine. SABio is a one-day science school where the latest advances and new ideas will be shared and discussed in a stress-free atmosphere.

Format: SABio program includes tutorials, presentations and interactive debates that will be held during the morning by prominent experts in the fields of advanced biomaterials, therapeutics and technologies. During the afternoon there will be time for informal networking and small group discussions on specific issues identified by delegates and a general sum up session will close the day.

Speakers: The group of prominent speakers of SABio includes

Nicholas Peppas (USA)

Ronit Satchi-Fainaro (Israel)

Paulo Bártolo (UK)

João Mano (Portugal)

Pamela Habibovic (NL)

Jonathan Knowles (UK)

François Berger (France)

Who should attend: Topics covered in SABio will be adequate to high-level researchers (PhD students, Post-docs), with various backgrounds (Materials Science and Engineering, Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Medicine, Pharmacy, Health Sciences).

Location: SABIO will take place in Montebello Hotel in Vista Alegre (Ílhavo), a five-star hotel (integrated in the space of Vista Alegre factory, an iconic porcelain company in Portugal, located at 8 km from Aveiro and offering excellent facilities in a cozy atmosphere.

Transportation from the University of Aveiro to Hotel Montebelo where SABio will take place is arranged.
